

Qn: What is the objective of the ASISSE?

Ans: The objective of Annual Survey of Incorporated Services Sector Enterprises (ASISSE) is to collect broad information on the operational and economic characteristics of enterprises that are registered under Companies Act, 1956, or Companies Act, 2013, or Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008 and engaged in services sector and to create a comprehensive database of the incorporated service sector of the country. ASISSE intends to estimate key characteristics such as gross value added (GVA), fixed capital, capital formation, number of persons employed, emoluments paid, etc. not only at state level but also at different industry level of the incorporated service sector of the country.

Qn: What is the method of data collection in ASISSE 2026?

Ans: ASISSE data will be collected through a web-portal using a structured questionnaire. All the selected enterprises will have to fill-up the questionnaire in the web portal.

Qn: Why my company is selected?

Ans: ASISSE will cover the incorporated service sector. So, all the companies belonging to this sector constitute the sampling frame for this survey. Selection of enterprises is made considering several factors, like, activity pursued, turnover of the company, etc. Some units are included with certainty as they contribute substantially to their particular industry or region or if the industry includes only a limited number of businesses in a state or territory. Generally, large businesses will be included in a survey sample because the information they provide can be quite robust and significant. The remaining companies are selected randomly on sample basis through a process of scientific sampling because they perform differently, giving more balance and integrity to the overall results. We collect information from a smaller group to produce estimates for the entire population. Further, the information your business provides is regarded simply as a representation of many other similar companies in the region and/or industry you belong to.

Qn: Is filling up the survey or responding to the survey questionnaire mandatory?

Ans: Yes. Under the Collection of Statistics Act, 2008 (amended in 2017), it is mandatory for every person, enterprise, or institution to furnish the information requested for statistical purposes by the designated statistical authority. Failure to do so, or providing false information, may attract penalties as prescribed under the Act. The information collected, however, is kept confidential and used strictly for statistical purposes only.

Qn: Will my data be kept confidential?

Ans: Since the data for this survey are collected under the COS Act, NSO is mandated to ensure the confidentiality of the data. All the information you provide is strictly confidential and protected and collected solely for statistical purposes. The information your business provides is regarded simply as a representation of the industry to which it belongs and aggregated using suitable statistical methodologies.

Qn: Can I be exempt from completing the survey questionnaire?

Ans: No. Once selected, a business is legally obliged to complete the survey because it is conducted under the provisions of the Collection of Statistics Act.

Qn: Will I get paid for completing the survey?

Ans: No, there is no provision for offering any payment for completing the survey. It is a legal compliance of the company and not a service. However, Government of India appreciates the time and effort taken to complete the surveys

Qn: Why is my data important?

Ans: Your responses to a survey represent your business and others like yours and cannot be replaced by simply selecting a different business. The answers you provide are used to create statistics about the economy. All the information you provide is strictly confidential and protected and collected solely for statistical purposes.

Qn: How will you use my responses?

Ans: All information that you provide is used exclusively to create accurate, relevant statistics about the economy. These statistics help policy makers to take informed decisions. Hence accurate information about your business is very important. However, individual businesses cannot be identified in statistics or reports published by the NSO.

Qn: Can I give NSO feedback on the design of its questionnaires?

Ans: Yes. NSO will appreciate the time you take to complete our questionnaires. If there is anything which you find confusing or difficult, NSO would like to know.

Please email your queries/suggestions on tc.dpd@mospi.gov.in.

Qn: My Company's name has been changed since GSTN registration. What should I do?

Ans: If the company's name has undergone changes while retaining the same GSTIN, the questionnaire may be filled in with the updated name.

Qn: My company is no longer operating from the given address. What should I do?

Ans: If the company's address has undergone changes while retaining the same GSTIN, the address may be updated and the questionnaire is required to be filled in on the basis of Balance sheets and other relevant documents, pertaining to the selected enterprises.

Qn: What is Financial Year?

Ans: A Financial Year is a 12-month accounting period used to record and report financial transactions. Generally, it runs from 1st April to 31st March of the following year. For example, the financial year 2024-25 would mean the period from 1st April, 2024 to 31st March, 2025.

Qn: What is an accounting period?

Ans: An accounting period is a specific period for which an organization records, summarizes, and reports its financial transactions. Financial statements such as the Profit and Loss Account and Balance Sheet are prepared for this period to determine the financial results and position of the organization.

Generally, an accounting period is of 12 months, and it usually corresponds to the financial year, i.e., from 1st April to 31st March of the following year. However, accounting period of an organization may be more than 12 months or less than 12 months depending on the status of the enterprise.

For example, if the enterprise runs its operations from 1st September to 31st March, then the accounting period would be the period of operation and not the entire financial year.

Qn: What if the enterprise is operating in more than one state, whether data should be provided for all establishments spanned over different states or only for one state?

Ans: In the ASISSE survey, enterprises are defined at (State-specific) GSTIN level. If the enterprise spans across multiple states, it is required to provide data only for the selected GSTIN of a particular state. Suitable apportioning, if required, may be carried out from the consolidated books of accounts.

Questions raised during fieldwork of the Pilot Study on ASSSE

Qn: If financial statements, including the balance sheet and profit-loss account, for the enterprise are not yet prepared for the financial year 2024-25, then how to fill in the questionnaire?

Ans: It is unlikely that financial statements, including the balance sheet and profit-loss account of an enterprise for the year 2024-2025 (April, 2024 – March, 2025) have not been prepared by January, 2026. However, if in an unlikely scenario, if it happens, then appropriate status code may be given with appropriate remarks. Our officers may like to verify the records.

Qn: An enterprise (GSTIN) has been merged with another GSTIN. How to deal with such cases?

Ans: If the selected GSTIN is retained after merging, ASISSE questionnaire needs to be filled in with respect to that GSTIN. If the selected GSTIN changes, then the enterprise may be rendered non-existing and appropriate status code may be given with appropriate remarks.

Qn: If two GSTINs are maintained by an enterprise, shall information be furnished for both of them?

Ans: Information needs to be furnished for the selected GSTIN only. Apportioning, if required may be done to split the GSTIN based enterprise level information from the combined books of accounts. If both the GSTINs are selected, then information is to be furnished for both of them separately.

Since each GSTIN enterprise selected in the survey represent many other similar GSTIN enterprises (and hence have a sampling weight attached with it which may vary from one selected enterprise to another), combining the data of multiple GSTIN enterprises would distort the estimate and hence should never be attempted.

Qn: An Enterprise is having two GSTIN registered in two States with a single balance sheet for the two registered GSTIN. Whether to cover all the activities pertaining to the balance sheet?

Ans: No, the ASISSE questionnaire should be filled up for the selected GSTIN and the activity/activities under coverage of ASISSE within the State.

Qn: Notice was served to an enterprise to its principal place of business (say, XYZ having GSTIN 123). During probing, it was found that the same enterprise is also having a separate place of business in the same state with separate GSTIN (say, ABC having GSTIN 456). While filling the schedule of enquiry, data for both the GSTIN (123 + 456) must be clubbed together and compiled accordingly, or only the business activity captured under the GSTIN 123 will be reported and compiled?

Ans: Since the selected GSTIN is 123, data to be collected and reported for 123 only, irrespective of the fact the enterprise is having a separate GSTIN 456 in the same state.

Since each GSTIN enterprise selected in the survey represent many other similar GSTIN enterprises (and hence have a sampling weight attached with it which may vary from one selected enterprise to another), combining the data of multiple GSTIN enterprises would distort the estimate and hence should never be attempted.

Qn: Where to reflect the income received from a unit from leasing out partly or wholly the fixed assets other than land (long term lease; ownership like possession)?

Ans: Income received from leasing out fixed assets (other than land) need to be reported in item 5 of Block 7C.

Qn: In case of Transport service unit, whether the Transport Vehicles can be classified against item 4 (plant and machinery) or item 5 (transport equipment) of Block 3?

Ans: It should be classified against item. 5 i.e., Transport Equipment.

Qn: Where to report the 'Pollution control equipment" in Block 3?

Ans: If the pollution control equipment is an integral part of any machinery or is used for the operation of entrepreneurial activity, then it should be considered in Plant and Machinery (Item No. 4 of Block 3). Else, it may be reported in item 9 as other fixed assets.

Qn: Where to report the "Dead Stock", if found available in the Financial Statement (FS)?

Ans: Dead Stocks is to be reported against item 8 (other current liabilities) of block 4.

Qn: An enterprise apart from trading activity, is doing manufacturing activity in small volume and that manufacturing activity is not covered in ASI. Whether such minor manufacturing activity can be reported in ASISSE?

Ans: Manufacturing activities shall not be covered under ASISSE. For enterprises pursuing multiple activities belonging to both manufacturing and service sector, only the activities pertaining to the service sector shall be covered in ASISSE.

Qn: If a person is working from home and getting extra allowances for overtime, would that individual be counted as two in column 4 of Block 5?

Ans: Work from home by a worker may be considered as one shift only.

Qn: How to consider accounting period if there is duration more than 12 months or less than 12 months? Some units have balance sheet with period of 1st January to 31st December.

Ans: Accounting period may be more than or less than 12 months but the closing date should be on or before 31.03.2025. In any case data may be filled-in as per accounting period without any apportionment.

Qn: If some units pursue multiple activities, for example, manufacturing activity and service activity, then how to calculate its fixed assets, liabilities, income and other expenses/receipts for the service activities only?

Ans: Fixed assets, liabilities and other expenses/receipts corresponding to the activities under the coverage of ASISSE needs to be apportioned based on their Income, Turnover and Employment in that order.

Example: Income based apportioning-

A company involved in multiple activities (manufacturing and services) has a consolidated income of ₹120 crores, of which ₹30 crores is from manufacturing and ₹90 crores from services. Therefore, the share of service sector with respect to the total income is 75%. Hence, to fill in the questionnaire of ASISSE, 75% apportionment is required with respect to the combined books of accounts of the company to calculate the fixed assets, liabilities, income and other expenses/receipts for the service activities only.

If there is a tie in the income across various sectors or the apportioning could not be done based on income, then Turnover or Employment criterion may be used for apportioning in a similar manner.

Qn: A hospital has a medical shop selling (trading) medicine to the customers in addition to the hospital activities registered under the same GSTIN number. whether both the activities need to be covered?

Ans: Yes, since both the activities fall under the purview of the survey and is pursued by the selected enterprise (GSTIN), both activities are to be covered.

Qn: A Trading enterprise has invested in Stock Market and has received Dividend during the reference period. Where to report the receipts?

Ans: Dividend received from investment in stock market need not be reported as receipts.

Qn: Where to report the value of a developed software which is yet not finally delivered to its customer.

Ans: It should be considered as semi-finished goods/ work-in-progress.

Qn: Whether the Trade receivables/ payables ageing more than one year be considered in to fill up the questionnaire?

Ans: No. Trade receivables/ payable aging less than one year is only to be considered.

Qn: Persons employed through contractors who are on the payroll of the enterprise but directly associated with the production of services, will be classified in items 7/8/9 or 1/2/3 of Block 5?

Ans: Should be reported in Items 1/2/3.

Qn: For printing and photocopying service providing enterprises, printer is a basic plant-machinery for that enterprise. Shall it be recorder against item 4 (Plant-Machinery) or item 8 (Information, Computer and Telecommunication Equipment) of Block 3?

Ans: This should be recorded against item 8 (information, computer and telecommunications equipment) of Block 3.
